Good afternoon.

I have not heard back from you regarding my response to your letter. You did say not to hesitate to contact you if I had any questions, which is why I wrote back to you immediately.

Since your firm's demand letter specified "five (5) business days to comply," and I received your email on June 23, 2026, it appears that tomorrow is the deadline. I am writing to you, once again, to let you know that I have every intention of doing the right thing in order to satisfy your client and avoid an unnecessary lawsuit.

I would sincerely appreciate a response to the questions I asked so that I may resolve this issue to your client's satisfaction.

If I do not hear back from you, I will do what I hope is the correct way to comply with your demands before your deadline.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Kienzle
